Please update your billing details. He describes not just the adventures of Mawson, but also those of Shackleton, Scott and Amundsen. No trivia or quizzes .

The expedition members left Australia on the Aurora and first reached Macquarie. Mawson was a self-motivated man, and seemed to have a penchant for driving the men who followed him, just as he drove. My general knowledge of Mawson prior to reading the book was that while leading an Australian expedition, something happened that caused him to be alone, enduring unimaginable hardships to ultimately survive.

Now Mawson himself plunged through a snow bridge, dangling over an abyss by the rope. He got rid of all dead weight so he cut his sled in half and the only thing that remained on the sleigh was the geological samples that he had taken.
