Zweig, Paul. Millon, Theodore. Even when circumstances change, the narcissist finds it difficult to adapt, shed his routines, and replace them with new ones.

Lying feels good too, for the same reason, but nothing compares to the pleasure. Is this the true meaning of love, bonding, and coupling? The baby is unable to grasp the complexities of her personality. I even see the deluged, overcomplicated diction in contemporary work; which brings me back to this book to regroup and recalibrate. Jan01, Barbara Spurll rated it was amazing. No one has ever seen a quark, or untangled a chemical bond, or surfed an electromagnetic wave, or visited the unconscious.
