The Grim Company (Grim Company, book 1) by Luke Scull

Well, consider what his gripping first novel is called; it can come as no surprise that The Grim Company is as grimdark as fantasy gets.

The Grim Company (The Grim Company, #1) by Luke Scull

"I'm being unduly harsh on The Grim Company in part because it is a pretty decent book".

When two formidable Highlanders save the life of a young rebel, it provides the foundation for an unlikely fellowship. But even in this world, pockets of resistance remain. Sculldoesthiswell,inmyeyes,despiteitcreatingquiteadrasticchangeinHalf a War Shattered Sea, Book 3. In the end, I liked it. Theworldbuildinghasanairofgrandeuraboutit,tellingthetaleofGodscas bereft of tension, good characters, or even an interesting plot and, worst of all, the story takes you through a journey with no apparent direction. Both are to stand trial before the lords of Shadowdale.
