Empty comment. I liked that and feel more fantasy authors should be exploring more creative cultures and settings in their stories! City of Lies is easily among my favourite books of all time.

Sam is perfectly nice to Shannon, until she calls Freddie cute. This all happened in the pilot episode. Kalina and Jovan are part of the ruling class of families, though people most do not know that this family has a critical and secret role in the kingdom.

They all have such heart and care so much it's hard not to like. The city-state of Silasta is practically a character on its own. I loved the focus on family the society had, as well as the idea that a family runs on the woman's .
