Such a positive expansion of the conceptualization of diversity is needed in our personal and professional lives in order to grow and share, as well as appreciate the gifts that each human brings to the planet. One such consideration may have been weariness of a culture of violence evinced in Italy by the Sack of Rome but conspicuous in most of Europe. Everyday there's a new challenge. Or, she could be chronically dissatisfied. The deconstructionist writings of Jacques Derrida offer another instance of secular writing in a religious key whose feminist relevance needs to be assessed. Their earliest endorsement came in the court environments of Rome from individual and groups of elite women who gathered perhaps initially in the Spanish ambassadorial environment of the Palazzo Madama. Grew older and things changed for my Dad financially. Like a prism which refracts the same time, it cannot presume that religion exists as some common universal underlying all the various traditions; only particular religions exist, and even the very concept of religion itself has come to be recognized as a modern and Western concept.
