These questions may appear overly abstract but they also bear directly on an important practical matter: will fundamentalists set the agenda for American Christianity in the twenty-first century? This was not a purely instrumental critique, aimed at increasing the power of organizations in the South, but a major shift designed to give a more cosmopolitan and integral dimension to human rights. So many people seem not to share her faith. It was a long night that night. Only a third said it was important that their close friends share their religious beliefs. Many local churches talk a lot about community. Singles group this year young marrieds next year maybe choir at some other time maybe the peace concerns fellowship after. They suggest certain connections, perhaps a temporal sequence, even an unfolding of events that we believe will occur in the same way again in the future.
