Faith is also one because it is directed to the one Lord, to the life of Jesus, to the concrete history which he shares with us. Nor is the light of faith, joined to the truth of love, extraneous to the material world, for love is always lived out in body and spirit; the light of faith is an incarnate light radiating from the luminous life of Jesus. With faith comes a new reliability, a new firmness, which God alone can .

The Christian can see with the eyes of Jesus and share in his mind, his filial di Now is the time to act and to strengthen our cooperation. In opposition to this claim, which even today exerts a certain attraction and has its followers, Saint Irenaeus insisted that there is but one faith, for it is grounded in the concrete event of the incarnation and can never transcend the flesh and history of Christ, inasmuch as God willed to reveal himself fully in that flesh. The word spoken to Abraham contains both a call and a promise.
